

In conjunction with the

LONG ISLAND READS

2012 selection of The Lost Wife, by Alyson Richman

'The Lost Wife' Tour

Prague - Budapest - Vienna
September 8 - 19, 2012

Some of the events or sights to be visited:

Hradcany Castle....Mucha Museum....Strahov Monastery Library....Terezin...Astronomical clock in Old Town Hall...Havelska Market....thermal baths ...cruise on the Danube River....Buda Castle District ...Belvedere Palace....Gustav Klimt's 150th birthday celebration in Vienna....Spanish Riding School....Marionette theater....Jewish Quarters, cathedrals, markets, and more

- ◆ We will have a dedicated tour guide for the full ten days, with local guides in each city.
- ◆ We will have set tours and group meals in each city, balanced with your choice of free time or optional tours.
- ◆ Through the author's research contacts at Terezín, outside Prague, we will have a personal tour and presentation from a survivor who is also on the board of the Terezín Initiative Institute
- ◆ The price will be $3864 per person, double occupancy. The price includes roundtrip airfare from JFK, all hotels, guides, all group meals, motorcoach between cities, airport transfers.
A single supplement is $530. A $50 deposit will be required by the end of February.

Rosh Hashanah will be spent in Vienna. Information will be made available about services while there.*

If you are AT ALL INTERESTED please contact LI Reads committee member, Loretta Piscatella, piscatellaloretta@mcpl.lib.ny.us, (631) 585-9393, x288.

This trip has been planned in cooperation with Prime Time Travel in Bellport using Globus Tours.